

foxhill bank map

Location

Close to the town centre, Foxhill Bank is 1/2 mile south-west of Church and Oswaldtwistle railway station in the valley of Tinker Brook, a tributary of the River Hyndburn. From the main road, Union Road, turn down Mill Hill opposite the cenotaph, past the fire station and follow the road downhill to the small car park by the reserve entrance. There is a train service to Church and Oswaldtwistle station and a bus service from Accrington and Blackburn.

Access

No permit is needed and you can visit any time of year. Recent work has created wheelchair access. Please keep dogs on a lead.

map key

- Roads
- Track
- Motorway
- Public Path
- Reserve Boundary
- Water
- Parking
- Reserve Entrance
- Broadleaved Woodland
- Coniferous Woodland
- Dry Grassland
- Marshy Grassland
- Viewpoint
- Railway
- Shingle
- Saltmarsh
- Saltmarsh with cordgrass
- Scrub
- Bracken
- Swamp
- Mossland
- Heath