

salthill quarry map

Location

Salthill Quarry is about one mile to the northeast of Clitheroe. It can be approached by foot from Clitheroe town centre via Salthill Road. By road from Clitheroe, follow the Chatburn Road turning right at the mini-roundabout onto the Pimlico Link Road, turn right onto Lincoln Way for the industrial estate, pass the auction mart and off-road parking is available on the right. From outside the town, it can be reached via the A59 trunk road, by turning onto the Pimlico Link Road and left onto Lincoln Way.

Access

Public footpaths pass through the Local Nature Reserve (LNR). No permit is required to visit Salthill Quarry. Cycling/mountain biking is not permitted. A geology trail can be followed around the reserve and a guide can be obtained from the Trust or the Tourist Information Centre in Clitheroe.

